Local Items.

Interesting matter, original or selected, may always be found on the first page.

BUTTER.—To-day was the liveliest day yet in our market, since the opening of the season, and butter was brought in in large quantities. The whole amount brought in and shipped was 1529 tubs, we believe, and prices were from 30 to 32 cents, with some lots at 33. But 32 cents was the average price.

Weight of butter shipped, at 50 lbs. to the tub, 76,450 lbs.

Some new cheese was brought in, and eight boxes shipped. Price from 10 to 14 cents.

THE FOURTH.—A meeting of the officers of the two fire companies of this place was held last night, at the office of Messrs. Dewey & Noble, and the programme for a celebration of the coming 4th of July arranged. The firemen, with commendable zeal and patriotism, canvassed our town for subscriptions for a celebration, and their efforts being liberally met, the meeting felt authorized to go ahead and prepare fully to honor the national holiday in a becoming manner. The following committees were chosen:

ON INVITATIONS.—C. F. Safford, J. P. Fisk, L. J. Swett.

ON FINANCE.—W. S. Norwich, A. W. Clark.

ON PRINTING.—E. D. Fuller, H. P. Aldrich.

CORRESPONDING SECRETARY.—A. G. Safford.

The intention is to have a trial of skill between such engines and companies as choose to visit us and compete, and as an inducement two prizes, one of one hundred, and one of fifty dollars are offered. Each engine is to be manned by not more than 40 men, to draft its own water and play a horizontal stream through 300 feet of hose and a nozzle at least 4 inches in diameter. Each company is to have ten minutes for preparation, and the time of playing is to be one minute. The St. Albans Brigade Band has been engaged for the occasion, and they will give us excellent music. Invitations to all the fire companies in the State, and to others on our borders have been sent out, and doubtless the competition for the prizes will be spirited.

We are informed by a Plattsburgh gentleman that a large number of the people of that beautiful place will make an excursion to our town on the 4th, that the Plattsburgh Band will accompany them, and that last night the firemen of that place met and resolved to come over with their engine. The new ferry will be established by the last of this week, probably, and will be convenient for the occasion. Arrangements have been made with the Vt. Central and Vt. and Canada roads, and will be made with connecting roads, to convey visitors for one fare, and engines free. All goes on well, so far, and as Mr. Seward telegraphed to Andy, "we shall all be happy."

THE WEATHER.—There were heavy thunder showers last evening and during the night, and the ground had a thorough drenching. The weather today, however, is pleasant and about as hot as that of yesterday, which thermometers say is 90° in the shade.

A SINGULAR CASE.—A family named Lawler, living on Lake street, about a quarter of a mile from the depot, this afternoon were the subjects of medical treatment, on account of what at first seemed a case of poisoning. The family, consisting of the father, mother, and one little child, were taken with cramps in the stomach, and convulsions, and were for a time in a dangerous condition. It was found that the family, with another person took a milk dinner, and that their cow had been sick, which probably accounts for the effect upon them; though the person who eat with them of the same food did not suffer therefrom. The family are all now out of danger, it is supposed.

HIGHGATE.—We learn that Mr. Hiram Seward, of Highgate Falls met with an accident at Pittsford, Mass., which has probably proved fatal, as his case seemed hopeless last night. Mr. S. was a house carpenter, and fell from a building upon which he was at work, injuring him very severely, and, as we before said, probably fatally.

Noah Best, Esq., a well known and respected citizen of Highgate, died on Sunday last, aged 62 years. He was a member of the Methodist church, and has been the Superintendent of its Sunday school.

THE CURRANT WORM.—There seems to be a large army of currant worms this year, and every owner of a garden is interested in knowing how to protect himself against the disagreeable spoiler, and the cheapest way that will effect the object is the best. Numbers here have applied to their bushes, with entire success, Hellebore. The Rutland Herald vouches for the efficiency of the following simple remedy:

Take of common soft soap one part water ten parts. Dissolve the soap thoroughly and apply to the bushes with a watering pot early every morning.

SHELDON.—There are now about one hundred persons from abroad at Sheldon partaking of the healing waters of the Missisquoi and other Springs. Mr. Smith, the proprietor of the Missisquoi Spring, does not keep so close a watchdog care of his "institution" as he did last year, and for a very good reason. A large number of visitors prefer the water from the other springs which has always been, and is, furnished gratuitously to them; hence Mr. Bainbridge Smith has been compelled to "back down" a little.

The Centre House is comfortably filled, and Mr. Wright, the landlord, gives his guests excellent fare.

AN OLD RESIDENT GONE.—Abel Lafflin, probably for the longest time of any one in that town a resident of Georgia, died there on the 8th instant, at the age of 83 years. He came to Georgia at the age of two years, and therefore he had been a resident of the town for 81 years. He was one of the few men left resident there who did service in the war of 1812. His wife survives him, at the age of 85 years, and several children also, four of whom, her daughters, and one son, are residents of Georgia.

Miss Deborah Hathaway, who came to Georgia about the same time as Mr. Lafflin, is still living there, at the age of 84 years.

VT. CENTRAL, AND VT. AND CANADA RAILROADS.—The following persons have been recently appointed Station Agents, upon this road:—Charles C. Stevens, Alburgh Springs; Henry B. Sherman, Georgia; Ebenezer E. Bowman, Colchester; John Lincoln, Jonesville; Henry Whitcomb, Bolton; and Lucius Webb, Sandusky. —Times.

RICHFORD.—The Sentinel says that the annual races on the Richford Trotting Park will take place Saturday July 4th. Messrs. Goddard and Sweetland, who have leased the course, offer $275 in purses; and horses are already there in training, among which is Peter Me Ennag's b. m. "Flora."

There are to be balls at the two hotels in this place on the evening of the 3d of July.

The meeting of the board of directors of the Franklin County Union Agricultural Society has been adjourned until June 13th, at one o'clock p. m., at the American House.

LOOK OUT.—Our streets are so pleasant these summer days that those who come here for transient "mercantile" operations often rent the streets and cry their goods in them. One enterprising professor of Mercantile Elocution, Prof. Jackson, made a variation in the practice to-day, and mounted on a carriage, drawn by four horses, harangued the public about the merits of Hughes' Pain Paste; and after making his triumphal march, and gaining the ear of many, as a matter of course, he commenced a sale of his ware. Now, the cure of pain is something almost every one wishes to try, from time to time, and if it can be done by Hughes' paste, people will be apt to find it out. Prof. Jackson orates and sells near the American House at 7 o'clock this evening, and will remain at the American three days.

On Thursday, the Vermont Editors' and Publishers' Association holds its annual meeting at the Memphremagog House, Newport, Essay by Hon. C. W. Willard, of Montpelier; poem by John Cain of Rutland. On Friday the Association are to take an excursion through Lake Memphremagog.

BASE BALL.—A match game of base ball was played at Bellows Falls, Vt., on Saturday, between the Dartmouth and Amherst College nines, for the champion balls of the Colleges. The game was won by the Dartmouth Club, the score standing 37 to 20.

APPEALED.—Mr. Hammond, against whom a verdict of $5,000 damages, and costs, was brought in, in a suit of crim. con., at Middlebury last week, has appealed to the supreme court.

BUSINESS CHANGE.—The Montpelier Journal, a very handsome, and well conducted daily, by the way, says that Mr. James R. Landon has sold his extensive and valuable water power and mill property in Montpelier to Mr. Davison Taft, and retires from active business. It notes his prosperous business career as follows:

Thirty-six years ago Mr. Langdon—then under age—began a very small business as a dealer in flour. Two years later he commenced the manufacture of flour, which business he has steadily followed till the present time. From a daily production of two or three barrels, the business has finally reached a magnitude of more than a hundred fold. The productions of his mill have attained an acknowledged standard of excellence unknown to any other Eastern manufacturer. From such a small beginning, by means of well-directed industry, economy, and uniform probity, Mr. Langdon long since won the distinction of being the leading—and by far the wealthiest—business man in our community. There is one striking fact we have often heard him mention: that there had been no year during his extended business life in which there was not a balance, of greater or smaller amount, to carry to the profit side of the ledger. This seems very remarkable, in a business so extended, and subject to such unavoidable fluctuations.

Personal.

Col. R. G. Stone, the veteran and general editor of the Plattsburgh Republican, is in town to-day. He appears to be in excellent health and is much interested in everything pertaining to newspapers.

The Brooklyn Union of a recent date says:

Jerome Hopkins, the composer pianist, is said to be engaged to be married. The lady is reported to be an Albanian, and the most highly accomplished specimen of the fair sex in that good old Dutch town, albeit not a "Dutchess." The "when" is still undecided.

The Providence (R. I.) Journal thus announces the death of an old College friend of ours:

George Dimon Kellogg, a brother of the estimable Rector of Grace Church in this city, died in Peru, N. Y., on the 9th inst. of a pulmonary difficulty, superinduced by the hardships and exposure of army service during the rebellion. He latterly held a position in the internal revenue department in New York, but last season spent some months in Providence in the hope that change of climate and air might have a favorable influence upon his health. He was a very genial and companionable man, possessing a fund of general information, and much ability and experience as a writer for the newspaper press. He graduated at the University of Vermont, class '53. He was son of Hon. D. O. Kellogg, of Brooklyn, N. Y.

Rev. R. M. Manley, formerly principal of Troy Conference Academy, delivered the oration at the dedication of the soldiers' graves, at Richmond, Va., May 30.

It is stated that Senator Reverdy Johnson, our new Minister to England, will resign his place in the Senate in a week and proceed immediately thereafter to his new post. He denies the statement that Charles Sumner secretly opposed his confirmation. On the contrary Mr. Sumner made a very feeling speech in favor of the appointment of Mr. Johnson.

DEATH OF A BIG OX.—One of the pair of mammoth oxen, owned by Post & Dunsmuir, of Hinesburgh, the Burlington Times, says, died yesterday morning. They were said to be the largest in the country of their age, and have been on exhibition for a year past in various sections. The pair was valued at $3,000, and were insured the past season for $3,000; but the insurance expired in March last and was not renewed.

A Montreal despatch informs the New York and Boston papers that 700 stand of arms were received at St. Albans two or three days ago. If such an event did take place, the authorities here are ignorant of it.

H. E. & S. H. Lewis have this day, June 8th, opened a large stock of Dress Goods, comprising Wash Poplins, Tacko and Tripoli Cloths, colored and White Plaques, Shawls, Parasols and Sun Umbrellas at reduced prices. 234

The Chinese emperor, fourteen years old, was married on the 27th of March. One hundred and twenty of the finest ladies in the realm were presented to the boy's mother, from whom she selected her future daughter, subject, however, to the veto of the emperor.

"Barrett's Vegetable Hair Restorative" took the First Premium over all competitors at the New Hampshire State Fair. It stands confessedly without a rival throughout the country, and is driving all other preparations from the market.—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

Mr. Chase in Richmond.

He Will Accept the Democratic Nomination.

NEW YORK, June 16.

The latest advices from South America are to the effect that on the 3d of June an attack was made upon the position held by Salnave by the Cacos, and repulsed. All the prisoners taken by Salnave were slain. Subsequently Salnave's cavalry were defeated, and Salnave retired to the northern suburbs of the town. He sent a deputation of his guards to the leader of the Southern revolutionists to effect a compromise. He proposed to retain his office three years, and give the ministry to the Southern generals, and that the army of the South should enter immediately into the city, and join with him in repelling the Cacos. These propositions were indignantly refused.

TORONTO, June 16.

Both branches, regulars and volunteers, of the special forces, are in excellent condition and organization. A large quota of volunteers will be drafted in Hamilton and London, as service battalions, to take field when required. Complete provision has been made for sudden attempts to cut the telegraph and burn bridges. A large quantity of war materials has been forwarded to different points.

NEW YORK, June 16.

A Richmond, Va., special despatch says authority has been given to state that Chief Justice Chase will accept the Democratic nomination and platform, embodying universal suffrage. Mr. Chase, who is now in Richmond, receives numerous letters daily from Republicans in the north offering to cooperate with the Democratic party in case he is the nominee, and the platform is of the kind set forth. Henry A. Wise and Mr. Chase visited the African church in Richmond together on Sunday, and heard divine service.

DELAWARE, CANADA, June 16.

Thomas Jones and his daughter Elizabeth have been convicted to-day, of the murder charged upon them.
